

THE INSTALLATIONS OF INDUSTRIAL AND MINING TOURISM

Country	Installations	Website / Related link	Description	Languages
Argentina	The Walk Park of San Carlos Centre	http://www.elsantafesino.com/la-region/2005/12/12/4123 http://www.clarin.com/suplementos/viajes/2005/01/23/v-00801.htm	The Walk Park of San Carlos Centre a favourable space to spend a day with interesting attractions offered with all infrastructures and comforts provided free. Manufactured crystals and bells with thousand-year-old craft techniques – this is what you will find there. You will be surprised of the clarity of the colours, green and it embroidered, embroidered and green, white to the sides and grey in each shadow. Factory of Bells Bellini, today's "Luis Bellini and Hip" still using a procedure of more than three thousand years of antiquity for making bell will open its doors for you, too.	ES
Belgium	The Road of the Fire	www.laroutedufeu.be	The Road of the Fire is a network of six tourist attractions that invites you to live the magic and the fire power since his discovery by the man and its technical and artistic applications the modern ages. The fire masters invite you to a vast journey through the time, the science and the technologies. True place of industrial memory, in a manner of a blazing spectacle the site proposes you to discover the know-how and the work conditions of the generations of craftsmen (brick makers, quarrymen, minors) that prepared the Walloon Industrial Revolution.	NL FR

Chile	Geology mining circuit	http://www.chilecitogold.com.ar/Index%20mineria.html	The circuit which is localised 30 km from the Chilecito City invites you to discover mine of gold, Mexican mine, mining district of black hill "La georgette", and also enjoy the sightseeing by above by using cable car that will bring you Chilecito – Mexican mine route. It is interesting to mention that the level average of the circuit is 3.000 meters above sea level that is extreme for mining region. In the guided tours you will hear the all history and usage of this mining area.	ES
Germany	Industrial Route of Ruhr Valley	http://www.route-industriekultur.de/	In the Industrial Route of Ruhr Valley you are welcome to reveal 52 exceptional testimonies of the industry cultural past and present of the Ruhr Valley form the route of the industry culture. In addition nationally important industry plants just as of notable architect sketched worker settlements, museums or panoramas, through which one can get a good overview over the story of the region.	DE
	Industrial Cultural Route Rhine – Main	http://www.route-der-industriekultur-rhein-main.de/	This exiting route offers to its visitors local route of the industry culture momentarily to find the history of Trunk home - Hattersheim - Frankfurt - bath Vilbel - open stream - Hanau - Bavarian Lower Main - Darmstadt - Mainz - Wiesbaden - Main tip - Hessian under Main and waiter Main. These places are considered as the green local route leader at selected industry cultural places in the culture region Frankfurt Rhine Main.	DE
	Hanover Industry ways	www.industriewege-hannover.de/	The route wants you invite on the trip along the water ways Hanover takes. It pasts by old tradition firms, modern business and important logistical centres for the provision of the region Hanover. On the tour you will enjoy the sights of the Lindener harbour, the goods switching yard Seelze and the north harbour of Hanover. The stretch along the canals is not only industry cultural interesting, it offers also numerous scenically attractive sections.	DE

Germany	German Ferries Route	http://www.deutsche-faehrstrasse.de/	You are welcome to find seventeen ferries to travel on, and thirteen bridges to cross: this is one of Germany's newest scenic routes, launched in June 2004. It is a 250 kilometre waterside museum between Bremervörde and Kiel. The German Ferries Route boasts a remarkably large collection of ancient and modern methods of crossing a stretch of water. The route showcases every conceivable method of getting across a waterway: elevated railway bridges, bascule bridges, tunnels, pontoon or pram ferries and even two of the world's only eight transporters bridges.	DE EN DN SE CH NL PL JP FR ES
	The Cultural Industrial Network of Bergisches country	http://www.bergnetz.net/	The Network developed as the most important and best known bidder of industrial culture excursion in the Bergischen country. The catchment's area for the visitors is in the mean time over the Bergische country, pleasantly way to bring visitors in the past to show how inhabitants of the region lived. The Network's bus tours works for your convenience to discover the industrial cultural of this region.	DE
	Industry Culture Experience	http://www.erlebnis-industriekultur.de/	The Industry Culture and landscape experience invites you to discover the triangle Bergischen city between forest smith, water wheels, worker quarters and airbags. The foundation industry monuments lead to open like a left catalogue of the industry culture like that. They find here a selection of more than 700 to the left websites to the subject of industry culture, beginning with authorities, arrangements and initiatives of the industry monument care, over industry monuments and technology monuments, pertinent museums, mines, historic railroads up to footpath. Here you can let generate a personal selection or include your own website to this subject in the list.	DE

The Netherlands	Rotterdam Port	http://www.portofrotterdam.com/en/news/pressreleases/2008/20080514_01.jsp	This unique area becomes accessible now for "round trip of port" for cyclists and pedestrians to sail from Hook of Holland to the Maasvlakte in just twenty minutes. Nowadays the route will also get extra stops at the Maeslantkering, the Scheurhaven on the Landtong and the Europoort. This service opens up a unique area from a tourist point of view. Rotterdam is the only port in the world that is fully accessible for cyclists, often via wide, separate cycle paths. In collaboration with 'OV-fiets' and Torpedoloods restaurant, 32 cycles are available for hire in Hook of Holland. The connection is operated by the Rotterdam transport company RET.	NL EN DE
New Zealand	Goldmine Experience	http://www.goldmine-experience.co.nz/	A guided tour takes you through an operational, 19th century Stamper Battery and into one of the richest goldmines of the time. If you prefer a self-guided tour, it allows you to explore the photographic museum, view a video presentation, discover mining relics, see steam-powered machines, and become acquainted with our Cave Weta colony.	EN
Spain	Central Termics of Cercs	http://www.xtec.es/serveis/crp/a8930004/recurs/recurs/ctermic.html	In the Central Termics of Cercs you are offered to see how electric energy is obtained from coal. A guided tour you will see all stages of the process when coal halves.	CT
	Presa of Baells and Central Hydraulic	http://www.xtec.es/serveis/crp/a8930004/recurs/recurs/embassa.html	In the Presa of Baells and Central Hydraulic, where you can visit the parts interior and superior and also hall inside. The capacity of the establishment is 115 hm3. it is interesting to mention that actually, Central Hydraulic was built in order to take advantage of salt of the water.	CT

	Historic Mining Archive "Pozu Fondón"	http://www.vivirasturias.com/asturias/langreo/archivo-historico-de-la-mineria-pozu-fondon/es	The public company "Hulleras del Norte, S.A" one day decides to centralize and systemise its documents... this was the beginning of this archive. The project seeks to convert mining – industrial patrimony the essential element of this mining zone. The goal is conservation and re-conservation of historic mining heritage as infrastructure for investigation and preservation of traditions of mining culture. The Archive includes various constructions such as office house, machine house, the building of taller mechanic, the primitive mine of exploitation of La Nalona mountain and others. The documental heritage creates the source for studies of the mining activities in Astutriana and the transformation that it includes from XIX century to the present.	ES
	Dynamisation Of Patrimony	http://www.bergueda.com/dinapat/	In the Berguedà region you are invited to discover not only archaeological heritage but also its rich industrial heritage of the coalfields of the Alt Berguedà were the region's most important industrial activity after the textile mills and also the textile mills, which influenced the economy, the people, and the landscape. There's more to the architecture of these communities than just the factory: workers' housing, churches, mill-owners' towers, theatres, schools, and services that were born and grew in isolation from the cities, creating a unique style of town planning.	CT ES EN FR
South Africa	Bay Port of Richards	http://zululand.kzn.org.za/zululand/about/136.html	Richards Bay handles approximately 1700 ships a year, 80 million tonnes per annum and is one of the few cities in the country promoting industrial tourism. Industries such as Richards Bay Minerals, Paper Industry - Sappi & Mondi Plant's Bell Machinery near Empangeni, Indian Ocean Fertilizer, SAFCOL offer tours of their plants and operations, which visitors always find fascinating.	EN

United States of America	Big Brutus, Inc., West Mineral, Kansas	http://www.bigbrutus.org/index.html	Big Brutus, a non-profit Kansas corporation dedicated to the mining heritage of Southeast Kansas. The corporation presents to the visitors the retired giant that you can see it on the horizon south of West Mineral, Kansas. Big Brutus is more than cold steel and long shadows falling across the Mined Land Wildlife Area. Big Brutus is not just a symbol of the past, but an eternal tribute to the mining heritage of Southeast Kansas and to miners all across the nation. On July 13, 1985, Big Brutus was dedicated as "a Museum and Memorial Dedicated to the Rich Coal Mining History in Southeast Kansas." There are exhibits, ever changing displays and photographs in both the Visitors Centre and Big Brutus to enhance the colourful history and heritage of this region and this bucket wielding machine and don't miss a self-guided tour.	EN
	Victor, Colorado	http://www.victorcolorado.com/	Two floors of artefacts, books, exhibits and photographs depict the life in Victor from its earlier days of gold mining. This is what museum shows off 1890's history. The gift shop offers books, historic maps and postcards, prints, posters and gold ore rocks, as well as videos of Thomas's life.	EN

NOTE:

CH – Chinese

CT – Catalan

DE – German

DN – Danish

EN – English

ES – Spanish

FR – French

JP – Japanese

IT – Italian

NL – Dutch

PL – Polish

SE – Swedish