

INDUSTRIAL AND MINING MUSEUMS AROUND THE WORLD

Country	Museum	Website / Related link (e-mail)	Description	Languages
Andorra	Iron Interpretation Centre of Farga Rossell	http://www.fargarossell.ad	In The Rossell Forge Interpretation Centre visitors to going to experience the origins of the iron industry, the implantation and importance of the industry in the Pyrenees and the work system and a technology of more than 4,000 years of history. Here you can enjoy guided tours, educational workshops, multimedia shows and may end the visit with a hammer demonstration, moved by the strength of water. On the web-site interesting virtual tour, videos, photo gallery and all information are offered.	CT ES EN FR
Argentina	Eco Museum of Stone in Tandil (project)	http://www.nuevamuseologia.com.ar/ecomuseo.htm	In the museum visitors are offered to discover the actual history of mining-immigration town of Tandil, equipments and tools used and the story of humans´ lives that developed this part of history. You will see unique houses, ancient machines, rails used to transport stones. You will find these interests of history by special circuit.	ES

Austria	Industrial Adventure	www.abenteuer-industrie.at	South of Vienna, between Viennese forest and Danube, one of that spreads fascinating European culture landscapes you are welcome to enjoy of textile, mining, metallurgy and transport museums of the region, where most different economy forms were and are found here on narrow room: Bergbaue, steel and textile factories are in neighborhood to cure cities, summer freshness and wine building zone, furnished mill and hammer works. These pioneer achievements are documented just as like the hard work everyday life and the culture product of the industry age.	DE
	Textile street of the Waldviertel	www.tiscover.at/textilstrasse	From traditional flax and sheep's wool production, the weaver guilds, the private spinning machines and production in the early manufactories, from the freelance home spinners and the dependent home spinners to the large-scale forms of the spinning and weaving industry, the production of textiles and its commercial business in the Waldviertel has marked people and landscape. Here you are welcome to enjoy of the tracks of old textile manufacturing Old Textile Fabric museum Weitra, Living Textile museum Groß Siegharts, First waving museum of the Waldviertel in Waidhofen a.d. Thaya and to discover trips of history and present in the textile region Waldviertel as well as working and living conditions of the textile.	DE EN
Belgium	Mine Museum of Bois de Luc	http://users.swing.be/musee-mine-boisduluc/	Here you are invited to find almost two-century history of many men and women who worked in the Mining Corporation of Houdeng-Bois-du-Luc with workshops and offices, schools, church, laboratory, hospital, party room... You will become acquainted with privileged custodian of the memory worker and rich of archives and of collections of the biggest interest. The museum is offering special workshops and classes of the history for the students.	FR

Belgium	Eco Museum of Centre	http://www.ecomusee-regional-du-centre.be	The regional Eco Museum of the Centre took its neighbourhoods on a former site of the Corporation of the Collieries of the Bois-du-Luc, oldest and prestigious one of Walloon. You will be brought to the life history of 300-years-activity. The industrial and administrative buildings, the schools, the hospice, the church, and the park. So many establishments that are open to tourists make the museum an unique corporation in Europe.	FR
	Mine Museum of Vlaams	http://www.toerismebering.be/html/mijnmuseum/mijnm.htm	In the museum you will find the history of stubborn professor G. Lambert and his theoretical hypothesis that here, in the North of Belgium, coal must be found and after almost 30 years of patient work, the theories have become successful approval. In the Flemish mine museum you experience the story of the hard labour of the miner and by fascinating manner become informed of the mining. In the beginning of the visit, you get to see a reception film over the social impact of the mine industry.	NL
	Museum of Industry	http://www.leboisducazier.be/lg_fr/musees_industrie.htm	The journey to the museum illustrates the epic and corresponding to the principal industrial sectors: the collieries, the steel industry, the glassware, the metallic manufactures, the mechanical and electric constructions, chemistry, the printing press as well as social life. Are presented sheet metal dating back to the environment of the XIX century, vapour machines, dynamos, presses and an electric tram of 1904. Come and joint this industrial adventure.	FR

Belgium	Gran Hornu	http://www.grand-hornu.be/index3.html	Grand-Hornu is an old industrial mining complex - a remarkable reminder of the Industrial Revolution. Built between 1810 and 1830 by Henri De Gorge, a captain of industry of French origin. Today Gran Hornu is an example of unique functional town-planning in Europe at the beginning of industrialisation. You are welcome to enjoy of workshops, offices, a workers' estate and the administrators' residence, known as "De Gorge Castle". With their arcades, pediments and half-moon windows, the colliery workshops and offices form a majestic whole.	EN FR DE NL
	Brussels Museum of Industry of Railways "La Fonderie"	http://www.lafonderie.be/	Brussels Museum of Industry of Railways "La Fonderie" collects and preserves the industrial memory in the form of machines and archives. The expositions are divided in phases: former foundry, the bronze company and ancient industry.	FR DE
	Walloon –Brussels Patrimonial Museum of Industry	http://www.patrimoineindustriel.be/	Walloon –Brussels Patrimonial Museum of Industry offers permanent and temporal expositions bringing you in the times of the beginning of XX century. Moreover, several possibilities of consultation is provided on the web page, such as the library and the publications of PIWB, with the partnership of the Center Liégeois of Archives and of Documentation of the Industry Coalwoman (CLADIC), the diary, and at last the outlet "HAS matter".	FR
	The House of Metallurgy and Industry	(maisonmetallurgie@msn.com)	In this house you are invited to discover the greatest period of the industry by the journey of time. You will be offered the oldest oven of the country, exclusive Makas, the strangest steam machine, dynamo of Zénobe Gramme and a lot of other hits till the discovery of actual fabrics. Moreover, special pedagogic visits are offered for children.	FR

Belgium	Mine Museum of Bernissart	http://www.ordisweb.net/museedelamine.htm	The museum invites you to get to know the memory of mining through only photos on the web sites introducing the equipments of work, presenting miners' living manner, their houses, daily used things, various documents. Every model of the photos you will see in the museums by your own.	FR
Check Republic	Check Museum of Silver in Kutná Hora	http://www.cms-kh.cz/	Kutná Hora is the second most important city and the silver treasury of the Bohemian Kingdom, listed in the UNESCO World Cultural and Natural Heritage Register, offers for you three enticing exhibitions about the history of silver mining. You will get acquainted with the history of the city, medieval way of mining, processing of raw silver and silver coinage. What is more, the offered tour includes a visit to a medieval mine with replicas of mining machines.	CZ EN DE
	Museum of Gold and Old Stone on Jílové and Prague	http://muzeumjilove.cz/muzeum/	The goldbearing district in Jílové belonged to the historically most important district in the Czech lands and there are many evident traces left from gold mining in the surroundings. The regional museum, focused on gold mining, invites to a permanent exhibition of occurrence, mining and processing of gold.	CZ EN
	Textile Museum in Česká Skalice	www.bozenanemcova.cz	You are invited to see the collections of the only Czech museum specialized in the history of textile production present the development of textile industry in the Czech Republic and abroad. The exhibition is dedicated to both the handmade and the industrial textile production, cotton production traditions and the history of textile printeries in the Eastern Bohemia. What is more, the exhibition includes workshops of a blueprinter, a designer and an engraver of printing platens, a working weaver's loom, a printing machine and other accessories.	CZ PL EN

Denmark	Håndværk- og industripuljen	www.industripuljen.dk		DN
Ecuador	Museum of the Sugar Cane	http://www.sica.gov.ec/agronegocios/Biblioteca/Ing%20Rizzo/azucar/museo.htm	The museum of the sugar cane is an exposition of cultural documents related to the cultivation of this plant and its exploitation or benefit with industrial end, besides other complementary of great importance as gardens, flora linked to the production panelera, native plants, mills of the most representative regions of the country and a collection of art of the colonial period and of the 19th century in an old and beautiful house.	ES
France	Mine Museum of Village Machine	http://perso.wanadoo.fr/villedelamachine/musee.htm	The Museum presents the different aspects of the activity of the coal mining by getting known with such companies as anonymous Corporation of the expressions of Decize, Company Schneider, Coal of the pool Centres Noon in a more political, more economical and more social way. The museum redraws daily life of the minors and their family, domestic space, their relations of work and neighbourhoods, in the friendliness of the parties and meetings. The ground floor presents a big collection of paleontology and mineralogy. Besides this, the museum each year introduces temporary expositions linked to the industry as well as to the local history.	FR
	Mine Museum of Cap Garonne	http://www.mine-capgaronne.fr/site/Historique/Musee.html	The museum brings us to the times when Mr Layet and Martel from Marseille asked for authorization to exploit coal mine in pave of Cape Garonne. Later without coal, copper and lead also were find in this mine. Moreover, different opinions of the life of many year are expressed of mining concession of Layet and Martel.	FR

France	Mining History Centre of Lewarde	http://www.chm-lewarde.com/index2.htm	Be welcome in the Mining History Centre of Lewarde! Your tour in the museum will begin with a cultural mediator who will meet you in the "hanging room", the miner's washroom, and leads you to the lamp room. From here, a guide will lead you to the mining train that takes you to the mineshaft for the "descent" into the 450 metres of deep tunnels before finally reaching the ten extraction pits. The machines are started up to recreate the exact working conditions and you will be explained how the industry evolved, from the XIX th century up until the 1990's. The offices of the Engineer, the Surveyors and the Accountant help visitors to understand how important these professions were to the operation of a pit. There is an exhibition devoted to three centuries of mining history, followed by exhibitions on the Daily Life of the Miners and social events. The accompanied and unaccompanied tours can be held. Guided Tours can be given in English, German, Dutch, Italian and Polish. It is important to mention that all tours are guided by former pit workers, and retrace the route that they took to reach their place of work.	FR DE EN NL
	Eco Museum of the Urban Community Le Creusot - Montceau-les-Mines	http://www.ecomusee-creusot-montceau.fr/rubrique.php?id_rubrique=9	The Creusot-Montceau Urban Community groups cities that have pioneered the great XIX th century industrial development. Today, museums and heritage sites re-enact this historic period. In the museum you can enjoy various expositions of crystals, safety posters, ceramics, 1881 photo album and many more. Additionally, the museum includes Educational Department where you will be find interesting information.	FR EN

France	Mine Museum Gréasque	http://poleminier.pagesperso-orange.fr/	Welcome on the site of the museum of the expression of Gréasque, established to the Well Hély of Oissel. You will be guided during a trip that starts with the history of coal and of its formation in Provence then through the history of the Well Hély of Oissel and mining pool. A sound, astonishing light and other effects recreate the site atmosphere to the time when it functioned. The journey continues by the trade of miners, their dangers, the work conditions and of life through the five centuries of exploitation.	FR
	French Oil Museum	http://www.musee-du-petrole.com/site%20anglais/index.htm	In this museum you are invited in the Europe's first ever producer of oil. You are offered to reveal this part of history by comprising mainly documents, photos, models, exhibits and oil equipment, the museum records 500 years in the history of the region by dealing with the origin of oil, the geology of the Rhine region, the mining of sand oils, the mining by drilling and pumping, refining. Moreover, you can enjoy the short interesting video.	FR DE EN
	Brewery Kronenbourg	http://www.brasseries-kronenbourg.com/corporate/	Kronenbourg founded in 1664 by Jérôme Hatt today is a major player in the brewing industry. The Strasbourg site proposes a number of visits aimed at families, professionals and school groups. Here you can enjoy a pictures, walk through the ancient vaulted cellars, watch a film on the history and production of beer, and taste the different products produced by the group.	FR EN

France	The Mine Image Museum	http://www.mine-image.com/	The originality of the entitled project "The Expression Picture" holds for the essential spontaneous character. It was not initiated by technicians, or by elected officials but by attached persons to the memory of their industry, among them of the former minors. Nowadays by young guides that were formed by the former minors that invites you to the discovery of the "melts" and coal, underground mining site, the authentic world of the "black Mouths". Moreover, you can discover the work, the techniques, the tools as well as the method of life of the minors and much more. A film of 25 minutes completes your visit, to divide this fascinating universe to the origin of the industrial revolution	FR EN
	Mining Museum	http://www.ville-molay-littry.fr/lesmusees/pagesmine/pageaccueilmine.htm	Here you are invited to discover a coal mine in Normandy and "Black faces" in the Bocage you reveal minors working conditions. In the mining museum, founded in 1902 on the old site of a mining shaft, you discover the miner's world both on coal face and at the pithead of the only local mine in Normandy.	FR EN DE
	Centre of History of Technique and Environment	http://www.cnam.fr/instituts/cdht/	The Centre invites you to discover the industrial history of environment and innovation. Also anthropology of technique is offered for tourist in order to realise the way industry has developed.	FR
Germany	Ruhr Museum and Zollverein Mine	http://www.zollverein.de/fs.php?wrap=http://www.ruhrmuseum.de	The museum is in the former coal wash of the mine customs society shaft. It will offer you extensive collections of the geology, archaeology and photography of history of Ruhr Valley. It is important to mention that is not a traditional industry museum but more as memory and shop-window of the metropolis. The museum shows the route of the industry culture and the portal industry culture in the coal wash.	DE

Germany	Rhine Industry Museum	http://www.rim.lvr.de/	The narrow connection of industry monument and past work world at the original place marks the industry museum and borders it from of the type of the open-air museum. Textile, metal, paper and electricity count as characteristic branches of industry of the Rhine industry landscape, and they form the in substance kernel of displays portrays the most important industries and the different steps of the industrial development in North Rhine-Westphalia.	DE
	The Westphalian Industrial Museum	http://www.lwl.org/LWL/Kultur/wim/	The Westphalian Industrial Museum brings you the history of life at eight original locations. The tales of the working lives of past generations are told here by characteristic industrial monuments.	DE EN
Ireland	Allihies Copper Mine Museum	http://acmm.ie/index.php?option=content&task=view&id=12&Itemid=35	The museum offers you to visit Allihies a memorable insight into a unique piece of heritage of national and international importance. Because of its extreme location, at the end of the Beara Peninsula, this story is all the more powerful and remarkable. The museum appropriately faces directly back to the spectacular mountains with the prominent engine houses. The centre is acting as a fitting memorial to all who toiled and some who died over the years in the mines at Allihies.	EN

Italy	National Railway Museum of Pietrarsa	http://www.musei.it/campagna/napoli/museo-nazionale-ferroviario-di- napoli-pietrarsa.asp	The Museum is found next to the first railroad line inaugurated in Italy in 1839, the Naples-Porticos, and it is found to the inside of the ancient factory, acquired to the period of the Kingdom of Two Sicilies. It was called Real Factory of Mechanic and Pyrotechnic, had been built not only the first locomotives, but also pyrotechnic works for war use, constructions for the Navy, cars of vapour and tools, besides works of art. Everything you can see here! It is discussed of being the most imposing representations realized with this material in Italy. It is important to mention that is the first Italian Museum entirely dedicated to the Railroads and, for the riches of the exposed materials, enters of right in the circle of the most important Railroad Museums of Europe.	IT
	Industrial Patrimony Museum of Bologna	http://www.comune.bologna.it/patrimonioindustriale/	Here you are welcome to discover not only productive processes, technologies used but also forms of innovations and companies of Bologna. Everything here represents industrial history of this region from XV th to XX th century.	IT EN
Luxembourg	National Mining Museum	http://www.mnm.lu/	You are invited in the National Mining Museum where you will see tools, machines, equipments and archive documents from the times of iron ore mining from the beginning of the XIX th century till the 80's. You will enjoy seeing these expositions on the underground galleries of the mine because everything is presented in their original location.	FR DE EN NL

New Zealand	Waihi Gold Mining Museum and Art Gallery	http://www.waihimuseum.co.nz/	Be welcome in Waihi's museum where you can see models, displays, videos, and a wide range of artefacts from the days of region's early gold mining. Here you will also find the Cornish Pumphouse. This working model shows how the pump was used to dewater the underground workings.	EN
	Thames School of Mines and Mineralogical Museum	http://www.nzmuseums.co.nz/MuseumDetail.asp?MuseumID=270	The Thames School of Mines comprises the former TSM complex, in existence between 1886 and 1953 and is only of two surviving examples in New Zealand now. Its Mineralogical Museum is a museum of a gold-mining town. It has country rock, elements in host rocks, fossils for dating before radiocarbon dating and metallurgical samples. The authenticity of the complex is intact.	EN
Norway	Industrial Museum of Orkla	http://www.oi.no/	Industrial Musuem of Orka preserves industrial and technical pieces of historical interest in the districts of Orkdal and Meldal and today they offer to discover for you. What is more, the museum presents the local history of industry and labour in an informative, exciting manner. At present you will experience the Thamshavn Railway, the world's oldest alternating-current-driven railway, and travel in carriages that were delivered at the 1908 opening of the railway. Or you will experience the "Cathedral of Work and Toil". The Museum Centre in the middle of Løkken Verk visually presents the history of the Thamshavn Railway and the mining industry.	NO EN DE
	Industrial Museum of Klevfos	http://www.olavsrosa.no/en/objektinfo.aspx?id=26976&tipcmd=tip	Klevfos Cellulose & Paper Factory was active from 1888 to 1976. The factory grounds, including production halls, machinery, storehouse, dam, canals and workers' housing, make up the exciting Industrial Museum of today. Ådalsbruk was the largest industrial complex between Oslo and Trondheim at the turn of the last century. Moreover, you can also visit the old Aadalbrug Iron Foundry in the vicinity.	NO

Slovenia	Coal Mining Museum	http://www.rlv.si/muzej/	The Coal Mining Museum of Slovenia, which has been established as a result of quality work of numerous generations of Slovenian coal-miners, is a joint venture of the Velenje Coal Mine – the most state of the art and the largest coal mine in Slovenia with the annual production of 4 million tons of lignite. The Museum is to tell the story of the coal mining in Slovenia and brings it close to you. The Museum is a means of preserving old miners' values – like camaraderie, solidarity and helping each other.	SI DE EN
Sweden	Industrihistoria i Stockholms län	http://www.lansmuseum.a.se/industri/industri1a.cfm		SE
Switzerland	Eco Museum of Bergslagen	http://www.ekomuseum.se/	Here you are invited to explore this fascinating, open-air museum and its 50-odd heritage sites in an area steeped in history and stretching from Strömsholms Royal Manor House and lake Mälaren in the south to Grangärde Finnmark in the north.	DE EN
The United Kingdom	Museum of Salt, Northwich	http://www.saltmuseum.org.uk	A visit to the Salt Museum begins with a short introductory film which sets the scene for the galleries. Upstairs you will find new Salt of the Earth gallery, which takes you on a walk through Cheshire's past. The River Weaver gallery tells the story of the River Weaver and the lives of those who worked and lived alongside it. The salt gallery shows how salt has been produced in Cheshire for over 2.000 years and shows 14.000 uses of salt. Moreover, in the gallery of "Walk through Cheshire" from pre-historic times to the XXI st century and "Made of Salt" investigates some of the uses of salt, from the sublime to the unbelievable.	EN

The United Kingdom	Industrial Museum of Kidwelly	http://www.kidwellyindustrialmuseum.co.uk/	Kidwelly Industrial Museum is situated just a mile from the historic castle town of Kidwelly, and just five miles from the town of Llanelli, which, at the end of the 19th Century was the Tinplate manufacturing centre of the world, giving the town the nickname of Tinopolis. The Industrial Museum has the site of the second oldest recorded tinplate works in the United Kingdom and some of the remains of this works can still be seen today. The museum is unique as it is the only museum dedicated to the interpretation of the tinplate industry in general and specifically the individual processes involved in making tinplate.	EN
	Industrial Museum Park of Wollaton, Nottingham	http://www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/sistemap/the_industrial_museum	You are welcome to visit Wollaton Hall and Park's Industrial Museum, with a wonderful display of textile, transport and technology from Nottingham's past on display, including favourites like the Basford Beam Engine, a fully operational analogue telephone network that you can see working whilst you chat, a display of cycles, motor cycles and motor cars linked to the city and some of the most important lace making machinery that put Nottingham on the textile map forever.	EN
	The Silk Mill – Derby's Museum of Industry and History	http://www.derbycity.com/derby2/indust.html	The museum occupies the site of the city's first silk mill, built in 1717 on the banks of the Derwent. The ground floor of the museum is devoted to the Rolls Royce aircraft engine, with displays showing the importance of the aero industry in Derby's modern history. The remainder of the museum showcases the other industries that have played an important role in Derby's development, including silk, mining, china, and the railroad. What is more, the Railway Research Gallery offers you displays covering the history of the Midland Railway. It is interesting to mention that Derby is the birthplace of some of the most notable achievements during the Industrial Revolution.	EN

The United Kingdom	West Cumbria Mines Research Group – Florence Mine (new museum; it is not open yet)	http://www.florencemine.co.uk/	The West Cumbria Mines Research Group has now closed the Florence Mine Heritage Center which it has operated successfully since 1992. The group intends to develop a new and much enhanced center to celebrate the mining heritage of the west coast of Cumbria and the social impact of this once great industry.	EN
	The National Coal Mining Museum for England	http://www.ncm.org.uk/	The National Coal Mining Museum for England is located at Caphouse Colliery, on the western edge of the Yorkshire coalfield, where mining has been carried out for centuries. Here you will discover all mining history of the region.	EN
	Scottish Mining Museum	http://www.scottishminingmuseum.com/	The Scottish Mining Museum is the central archive for the Scottish Mining heritage, social and mining history for Scotland. The museum is based at one of the finest surviving examples of a Victorian colliery in Europe, the Lady Victoria Colliery at Newtongrange. Here you will find two major exhibitions “The Story of Coal” and “A Race Apart” which feature interactive displays, reconstructions, sound and visuals to describe the history and technology of coal and the story of the mining communities. What is more, you will discover the largest winding engine in Scotland, can enjoy Big Stuff - massive mining machinery tour and many more. Also, you should know that all guides in the museum are ex-miners.	EN
	Durham Mining Museum	http://www.dmm.org.uk/	The North East of England Mining Archives and Resource Center is a new mining archive currently being set up at the University of Sunderland with the support of the Heritage Lottery Fund. The coal mining industry has been at the epicenter of the society and economy of the North East of England since medieval times. In the museum you will discover the history of the mining that played a seminal role in constructing every infrastructure of the region.	EN

The United Kingdom	Cleveland Ironstone Mining Museum – Tom Leonard Mining Museum	http://www.ironstonemuseum.co.uk/	This museum offers you an opportunity to discover the skills and customs that built Cleveland's Ironstone heritage. It is the only museum in the country which tells you the story of Ironstone mining, and here you will experience the underground world of a real ironstone mine and to explore the skills, customs and life of the Cleveland miner. Here you discover of the rock, the cavernous ventilation spaces and the North Drift of the old Loftus Mine. What is more, you will explore an underground working place and museum gallery.	EN
	Peak District Mining Museum	http://www.peakmines.co.uk/	While visiting the museum you experience and wonder at the forgotten world of a Derbyshire lead miner. Here you will see the tools miners used, clothes they wore, the advances in technology and the importance of this metal in our modern day lives. You are invited to discover climbing shafts, Hazard tunnel, rag and chain pump, various working models also rocks and minerals including the Howie collection. Experience all this for yourself and enjoy a look into an industry that did much to shape the landscape and prosperity of Derbyshire and its notable families.	EN
	Industrial Museum of Etruria	http://www.stoke.gov.uk/cm/navigation/leisure/museums/etruria-industrial-museum/	Etruria Industrial Museum is the last steam-powered potters' mill in Britain. It includes Jesse Shirley's Bone and Flint Mill, scheduled as an ancient monument in 1975. In the museum you will enjoy interactive exhibition, tearoom and shop. The mill is 'in steam' seven times a year when the 1903 boiler is fired and historic machinery can be seen working.	EN

The United States of America	Petrol Museum, Midland	http://www.petroleummuseum.org	In this petrol museum tells you the story of petroleum and energy, and the rugged lives of men and women who sought a better life. You will explore all this is through world-class interactive exhibits for all ages, from ancient and modern drilling rigs, to seismic explosion demonstrations and real race cars. Moreover, photographic wall murals were depicting early life in the oilfields, a West Texas boomtown, a unique marine diorama allowing you to travel back some 230 million years ago. The Petroleum Museum is divided into three wings, each illustrating one of the three aspects of our story: geological, technical, and cultural. The Museum has since added a new wing dedicated to sharing the connection between petroleum and transportation.	EN
	The Western Museum of Mining and Industry	http://www.wmmi.org/	The emphasis of WMMI's collection is placed on the technology and technological history of metal mining and metallurgy, as well as the social history of the American Mining West. The Western Museum of Mining and Industry brings the history of Mining to life for you through a variety of exhibits complete with daily guided tours included with admission. Among the many exhibits at WMMI is this re-creation of an 1890's assay office. With a collection of mining equipment and artifacts you can experience America's rich mining history through.	EN
	Lowell's National Historical Park	http://www.nps.gov/archive/lowe/loweweb/lowell_history/otherindustry.htm	Lowell was dominated by the textile mills in its early years. Here you find where textile machinery firms were established to meet the demands of textile manufacturers throughout New England. The Lowell Machine Shop and the Kitson Machine Company were the largest of these companies, but there were many others. Other textile-related firms manufactured and distributed a broad array of mill fixtures, tools, and textile machine parts.	EN

The United States of America	Sterling Hill Mining Museum	http://www.sterlinghill.org/	The Franklin-Sterling Hill mining district represents two centuries of American mining history and technology, mining law and the earth sciences. It was not until after the perfection of ore-dressing techniques in the early 1800's that mining the deposits became economically feasible. The Sterling Hill Mine closed for a variety of reasons in 1986 and four years later, in 1990 this museum was opened. It is quite cold inside, so, bring a sweater or light jacket.	EN
	The World Museum of Mining	http://www.miningmuseum.org/	The World Museum of Mining was founded in 1963 when the close of Butte's mining heyday was less than two decades away and earned the reputation of one of the world's most productive copper mines of all time. The World Museum of Mining is one of the few museums in the world located on an actual mine yard- the Orphan Girl Mine. With fifty exhibit buildings, countless artifacts, and sixty-six primary exhibits in the mine yard, you can spend a couple of hours to an entire day lost in the unfolding story.	EN
	Black Hills Mining Museum	http://www.mining-museum.blackhills.com/	Welcome to the Black Hills Mining Museum, located in the mile-high city of Lead. You are invited to visit us the numerous exhibits and activities. For more than a century, gold mining had been the number one industry in Lead and in the Northern Black Hill and today you have a possibility to see this mining heritage.	EN
	National Mining Hall of Fame and Museum	http://www.leadville.com/miningmuseum	The National Mining Hall of Fame & Museum is a monument to the memory of the men and women who pioneered the discovery, development and processing of Americans' natural resources. Mining's colorful history is showcased throughout the facility. The museum is located in the famous 1880's silver mining boomtown of Leadville, Colorado at the top of Colorado's Rocky Mountains.	EN

NOTE:

CT - Catalan

CZ - Check

DE - German

DN - Danish

EN - English

ES - Spanish

FR - French

IT - Italian

NL - Dutch

NO - Norwegian

PL - Polish

SE - Swedish

SI - Slovenian