

Campus "El Carmen"
University of Huelva

Thank you for joining us to create a multicultural experience for our university community. Please enjoy working, learning, networking, socialising and showcasing your home institution during our International Week. With this event, celebrated twice yearly, we wish to show our appreciation for your collaboration and acknowledge the many benefits for our university, city and province. We place a high value on our partnerships and hope that they will continue to flourish into the long term future.

Tips & Recommendations

- ✚ We ask all our visitors to support their colleagues by attending the 5-minute presentations on Monday afternoon in the Law Faculty.
- ✚ Sustainable Horizons Project presentations will run for all of Tuesday morning. Visitors participating in the language and dance classes are encouraged to arrive and leave as convenient.
- ✚ The Study Abroad Fair aims to facilitate interaction between our partners and the UHU community. We would like all our visitors to attend, either representing their university at a stand, and/or by visiting the various stands.
- ✚ Please be at the Open Air Classroom for your chosen tour on Thursday morning.
- ✚ The World Coffee for Women Academics on Thursday morning is an activity within the Sustainable Horizons Project and is specifically for Women Professors.
