

Images
Camille Turner

Camille Turner

Camille Turner 's works include HUSH HARBOUR and The Resistance of Peggy Pompadour, both sonic walks that animate historic Toronto's black geographies. She has produced TXTilecity, an award-winning educational app that maps the city of Toronto through its textile histories and TimeWarp, an Afrofuturist cellphone adventure included in Land/Slide: Possible Futures exhibition. She is a graduate of the Ontario College of Art and Design and York University's Masters in Environmental Studies program. She teaches Art, Culture and Community Building in the New One program at the University of Toronto.